areas is traditionally marked by the extraction of date sap. At present, farmers are pruning and cleaning the trees, and within a few weeks when winter's chill deepens the collection of the sweet sap will begin. In areas with large clusters of date palms, temporary work stations have already been set up, and farmers are drying branches to use as fuel for molasses production.

Shahin Ali, a grower from Sarfraz village in Chiradanga municipality, said, "We have started pruning and cleaning about 120 trees. The work of installing drains will begin in two weeks. Once primary, a five-philo sap for three to four days, the Department of Agricultural Extension, said the district met its production target last year and expects similar success this season. "If the intensity of winter increases, farmers will be able to produce better quality molasses," he said.

He also urged farmers to protect the date sap from birds and bats to maintain hygiene and ensure more production. Additionally, he warned against adulteration in jaggery preparation.

With favorable weather and the dedication of farmers, Chiradanga's sweet winter tradition is set to bring both flavor and livelihood to the region once again.

pretending to join a BNP program.

They had planned to vandalize and set fire to vehicles on the Dhaka-Chattogram highway following the instructions of the central Chhatra League.

Initial questioning revealed that former MP A. K. M. Raki Uddin Bahar, who is absconding abroad, and some leaders of the banned BCL, sent money to destabilize the area, said police sources.

It was also alleged that some people who were hiding were working as instigators behind this procession through provocative posts and comments on social media.

Additional Superintendent of Police Rashedul Haque Chowdhury said 44 people were arrested from different parts of the district for disrupting public order and legal action is underway against them.
